CHRISTMAS WITH C.S. LEWIS

WRITTEN, DIRECTED & PERFORMED BY DAVID PAYNE

ACT 1
45 min – Christmas Past

INTERMISSION – 15 MIN

ACT 2
45 min - Christmas Present

About / Who's Who in the Cast

The year is 1962 and C.S. Lewis is hosting a group of Americans who are Christmassing in England. They are Scholars of English history and, following Christmas, will be visiting a number of historical sites. Knowing that Lewis is a Professor of Medieval & Renaissance Literature, their leader has asked if he would give an informal talk on festive traditions of the past and how that has influenced the way the English now celebrate Christmas.

DAVID PAYNE David says coming to Nashville with any of his drama productions is always very special for him. That's because Nashville is where his acting career began. Moreover, his first time on stage was at the age of 56 and AT the Tennessee Performing Arts Center! He had been in Nashville for a music project when he read seven words in a theatrical bulletin that would forever change his life – “Auditions for Shadowlands, British accents a help!” He had never been on stage before, BUT he did have a British accent thanks to being born and bred in London, England. He went along to the audition hoping to get a small part and to everyone's surprise - not least his own – won the lead role of C.S. Lewis. The production sold out, Lewis' stepson Douglas Gresham flew in for the gala night performance and director, Sylvia Boyd, said of his performance “I took a chance on someone who had never acted before but was rewarded with a performance of great power and sensitivity – I felt we had found the real C.S. Lewis!” Since then, in his many portrayals of the great British author, many thousands also feel they have found the real C.S. Lewis. Following his Nashville debut, he has performed his one man show ‘An Evening with C.S. Lewis’ over 1500 times. An earlier version of that show on YouTube is nearing 2.5 million views and he has written and performed in numerous self-penned productions mostly featuring Lewis and his great friend J.R.R. Tolkien.

He wrote Christmas With C.S. Lewis during the early days of Covid when he had over 70 performances cancelled. During that period, he also wrote his very latest stage offering – CHURCHILL. In this one-man play he portrays the famous British politician as he recalls the events and people that shaped his life and that did much to prepare him for his wartime leadership role. The show ends with a heart-warming and moving tribute to the two most important women in his life – his wife Clementine and Queen Elizabeth 2nd.

PatronServices @TPAC.org

Accessible Services at Tennessee Performing Arts Center (TPAC) include parking, elevators, wheelchair seating, use of a TPAC wheelchair, designated restrooms, and services for patrons with limited hearing and vision. Infrared assisted listening devices are available at no charge at the entrance to each theater. TPAC offers American Sign Language, Open Captioning, Audio Description, and Braille programs on the Sunday matinee in the HCA Healthcare / TriStar Health Broadway at TPAC season. Large print programs are available for Broadway at TPAC shows. Special accessibility requests and concerns may be discussed in advance by calling 615-782-6577. Your message will be returned the next business day. Wheelchair reservations are made 48 hours in advance of the performances.

Restrooms for Jackson Hall are located one level down from the 6th Avenue entrance, and on each level inside the theater. Restrooms for Polk Theater are located down the stairs to the left of the entrance to the orchestra level and on the tier level.

Bars are located in the lobbies and inside the orchestra level of Jackson Hall.

An ATM is on G-Level, near the security desk at the Deaderick Street entrance to the building.

All electronic devices including cell phones, watch alarms, cameras, and recorders should be turned off prior to the show. For those expecting emergency calls, please call 615-782-4087 and speak with the House Manager 48 hours in advance of the performance.

Call Lost and Found at 615-782-4098 to report an item you might have left at TPAC.
